Tom McCall

Dear Bob: you have cheered me on as few others have in this long ordeal. And didn't we do well as cooperators during the tough years we served Oregon together! A most memorable moment was when you told me I could have the presidency for myself unless your schedule for bringing in the state police to handle the sit-downers, was observed.

I acceded without a quibble — and subsequent events confirmed your wisdom. You grew with adversity — and maybe I did too. I'll always treasure Clark Kear's comparison of our higher education progress to California's those eight years: they slipped and Oregon forged upward. Ah, "one fight more": may it always await us.
Most gratefully yours,
Tom McCall
